STUDIES IN HUMAN NATURE (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book by the Professor of Logic and Metaphysics at the University of Aberdeen is made up of an Introduction and nine Studies or essays with the following titles: (I) Anthropomorphism and Truth; (II) The Realistic Character of Knowledge; (III) Certain Non-Logical Factors in the Process of Knowledge; (IV) The Nature of Memory-Knowledge; (V) The Function of Emotion in the Consciousness of the Real; (VI) The Significance of Philosophical Skepticism; (VII) The Place of Philosophy in Human Nature; (VIII) Science and the Humanities; (IX) Laughter and Tears: The Sense of Incongruity. The philosophical standpoint from which the book is written is indicated in a general way by the title of the book and by certain statements in the preface. It is not the purpose of these papers, the author writes, to defend or support any of the familiarly accepted theories, whether of idealism or realism. Human nature is far more interesting and much more important than any theory, and on that account perhaps is tolerant of many theories. We best avoid the defects of one-sided theories if we follow the path of what Sidgwick used to call critical common sense, and hold to the natural solidarity of human experience to which it clings. . . . The best service which philosophy can render at the present time is that of supplying a criticism of life. The different essays are all concerned with human nature in its theoretical aspects, but the author suggests a purpose to treat on another occasion of the problems of morality and civic institutions which the upheaval of the present time has forced into prominence Professor Baillie s discussions are characterized by great clearness and...
