Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Antiquary, Vol. 34: A Magazine Devoted to the Study of the Past The most important subject to chronicle in these notes is the Ninth Archaeological Congress, which met at Burlington House on December 1, when a large number of delegates of societies attended. Resolutions were adopted for forming a catalogue of effigies of all dates in parish churches, and for compiling models for catalogues for museums and for indexes of transactions of societies. It was announced that preparations were now made for obtaining, through the various societies, catalogues of family and historical portraits on the forms devised at the request of the Congress by Mr. Lionel Cust, the Director of the National Portrait Gallery. The formation of a National Photographic Association was also announced; this will, it is hoped, assist the work inaugurated by the Congress some years back. A more detailed account of the Congress will be found on another page. Under date of November 21, but too late for insertion in the Antiquary for last month, Dr. Arthur M. Thomas (Glenshee Lodge,...
