The present paper then is only intended to mark what has already been accomplished, but it is hoped that much more may be done at some future opportunity. fflN our 1st Vol., p. 89, will be found an article on Some Glass Bottles from Thornford. These were impressed with curious circular stamps which at once pointed to their ownership. These were squat, big-bellied forms, with the stamp on the shoulder. They were of two sizes, one a pint, the other of the capacity of a quart. These bore a Baron s crest, and our figure is here reproduced for the purpose of greater clearness. Besides this and the other examples figured we have since obtained two additional ones from...
