Hard Way Home

By Dennis Clark

Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 393 pages. In Hard Way Home, Dennis Wesley Clark weaves a spellbinding plot filled with suspense and adventure. A true page-turner, this stellar debut distinguishes itself by its sheer audacity to tell a heck of a good story. The Vietnam War was over. Some soldiers were left behind confirmed by live sightings of POWsMIAs. The pressure for their return was augmented with threats. But, the threats had unintended consequences. The enemy devises a plan was designed to ensure none were ever found. As the purge was being executed, a small team of Americans POWsMIAs became aware of the purge and coordinated an escaped. Thirteen men rendezvoused for the escape. They divided into three different escape plans. Each plan had its own tale. One plan was to escape out to sea. Another plan was to escape to Thailand. And, the last plan was a long overland journey to an American Embassy. The overland journey was arduous. Time was lost in a Burma jail. But, when they finally arrived at the American Embassy in an Eastern European country, they found their arrival was an utter surprise. Washington was caught off guard. It feared their arrival would derail...
