Perrin, 2015. Couverture souple. Book Condition: Neuf. Postface de Jean-Paul Bled. Collection Tempus. Présentation de l'éditeur: "Dans son dernier ouvrage, August von Kageck nous livre un récit particulièrement précieux : c'est le soldat allemand qui raconte la France occupée, et non l'inverse la période prend donc une autre teinte. Son double regard d'historien et de témoin conjugue la narration des réactions et des attitudes de la population française et des hommes de la Wehrmacht obligés de vivre ensemble ; les relations entre occupés et occupants deviennent rapidement tendues à l'extrême, malgré des premiers mois relativement calmes. Le récit s'interrompant en 1942, à l'invasion de la zone libre, Jean-Paul Bled, après une remarquable préface, signe une postface qui complète l'oeuvre de Kageck en déroulant les événements jusqu'à la Libération."
