OU are to be congratulated that we are nearing the end of this remarkable and painful trial. I am sure you deserve sympathy for the self-denial you have each been compelled to observe in order to properly discharge your duties as jurors. Nearly a week ago you were agreed upon by both parties, and called to the jury box according to the forms of law, because it was believed that you were individually worthy of the station. You were shut out from all communication with your families, and the public, denied access to the newspapers, and your seclusion has gone to the extent that acquaintances were not allowed to address you the ordinary salutations of the day as you passed to and from this court room. All this was done for the proper purpose of keeping your minds free from external bias, and that you might at this time come with unclouded judgments to a free and honest consideration and understanding of the law and the evidence of the case on trial before you. We have reached that point when it becomes my duty to present to you our understanding of the truth of this case. I am profoundly impressed with the importance of that duty, and ask your generous indulgence and careful attention while I endeavor to truthfully and faithfully present the defense...
