It is our hold on immortality. The same affection which makes us reach forward and peep into futurity, prompts us to travel back to the hidden events which transpired before we existed. We thus feel our span of existence enlarged even while we have the pleasure to identify ourselves with the scenes or the emotions of our forefathers. For the same cause relics are so earnestly sought and sedulously preserved, - they are full of local impressions, and transfer the mind back to scenes before. As Americans, we see in a short life more numerous incidents to excite our observation and to move our wonder, than any other people. The very newness of our...
