WHAT PHILOSOPHY CAN TELL YOU ABOUT YOUR DOG

Open Court. 1 Paperback(s), 2008. soft. Book Condition: New. Do dogs live in the same world that we do? What are dogs thinking about, and what is the nature of canine wisdom? Do they have the personalities and emotions that we ascribe to them? These are some of the persistent questions raised over thousands of years of close collaboration between our species. Philosophy professor Steven Hales here collects a score of essays by thoughtful humans who are also dog lovers, sniffing out the mysteries of the dog mind, the canine perspective, and our part in their evolution. "A collection of thought-provoking philosophical essays which cover a whole range of dog-related topics, such as whether dogs have the ability to appreciate designer products, do they have souls, why do they mean so much to us and is it possible for them to love us in the same way? With contributions from numerous authors, there's plenty of food for thought."Your Dog 303.
