The question will probably occur here what becomes of the infants of the heathen who die in infancy and who are not baptized? It is freely granted that they are saved from the consequences of Adam s transgression, through the merits of the second Adam, and in the order of that gracious constitution which he has raised for the recovery of the world. But into what degrees of positive blessing? There is a difference between that constitution of grace under which the whole world is placed (in which many transactions of wisdom and goodness take place beside the salvation of heathen infants) and that covenant which is made to Abraham s spiritual seed--the church. This church is distinguished by peculiar privileges, there is a special presence of God manifested unto it, which is different from God s general OmnipresenceAll children are born under Christ s merciful constitution, but all are not born within the encircling clauses of that gracious engagement which refers to the christian church, this is the privilege rather of christian infants. Whether there will be a difference in the allotment of eternity between the children of the church...
