Not illustrated. 1904 Excerpt: . the sound of the many voices in prayer was a delight to hear. Oh, how the old Missionaries sacrificed and struggled and toiled that you and I might have this house of prayer today. By the way, boys, did you build it--was it not built for you by others? Go away back into the past, to the old missionaries who with tremendous heroism and sacrifice converted our Pagan forefathers to the Christian religion. Think of what they sacrificed and suffered; think of how much it cost them to be able to leave to you this heritage you enjoy. Go back to the days of the fierce persecution in the early ages of the Church, when the martyrs laid down their lives on the scaffold and in the fire, that you and I migut be able to say the Apostles Creed, that we might kneel here...
