This is the True story of my Family Adventure and Disaster that was the best thing that ever happened to me! The number, 6692 is the date, June 6th 92, when an event that taught me the most valuable lesson of my entire life took place. My memoir follows my young familys adventures after we abandoned our secure, comfortable and meaningless existence in suburbia to follow our dream. This often humorous account, relates how we unwittingly bought a jinxed yacht, watched it smash itself to pieces and with no prior experience, skills or training rebuilt it, sailed away, rediscovered paradise, punished betrayal, found ancient treasure and survived sharks, crazed lemurs, gossiping walruses, a lynch mob, a curse, explosive gas, flaming epoxy and oozing quicksand. It also relates how, in answer to my prayer, we lost everything we owned and experienced heart-breaking generosity that altered our lives and welded our family even closer together. The book explains why we celebrate June 6th every year as Pisces Day with a family meal of Prawns and Rice. It also reveals why and how I tried to commit murder. After several short stories (based upon opening chapters of this book) reached the finals and were published in a daily newspapers annual True Short Story competition, I was inundated by requests from readers for the rest of the tale. Despite encouragement from family, friends and total strangers to write this book, I refused to do so for almost twenty years whilst I waited for someone that I tried to murder -to die. During that time it remained trapped inside me like the key log holding its fellows prisoner within a logjam. I hope...
